DECLARATION OF DOUGLAS P. DANZIG

Douglas P. Danzig hereby declares:

3 I am the Deputy Attorney General assigned to prepare the pleadings in the case of Orange
4 v. Hedgepeth, et al., civil number 08-0767 BTM (WMc). The case was assigned to me on May 12,
5 2008. No previous enlargements of time have been granted to Respondent.

6 In the past 30 days I have filed responses in six federal habeas corpus cases. I have also 7 been a primary reviewer for this office's federal habeas pleadings, and have filed internal 8 memoranda concerning possible appeals of habeas decisions in district court cases.

9 In addition to the instant matter, I am currently assigned to prepare responses in eleven
10 federal habeas cases, including answering briefs in three matters. Also, I remain one of this office's
11 principal reviewers of federal habeas corpus pleadings. Orders to respond were issued in seven of 12 the eleven referenced cases prior to the date the order to respond was issued in this case. Therefore,
13 I will estimate it is unlikely I will be able to begin drafting a response in the instant case until 14 approximately July 30, 2008.

15 The failure to file a response in this case within the time allotted by the Court is entirely
16 my fault. Due to serious family problems, unrelated to work, I have recently had a great deal of 17 difficulty managing my case. Nevertheless, that is no excuse, and I apologize to the Court for failing
18 to comply with its Order regarding the due dates for a response.

19 I completed a preliminary review of this case today, June 30, 2008. That review revealed
20 Respondents will probably file an Answer to Petition rather than a motion to dismiss.

21 Accordingly, I respectfully request this Court grant the requested enlargement of time.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct.

Executed this 30th day of June, 2008, at San Diego, California.
